

MiHC ORGANIZATIONAL SUSTAINABILITY CONSULTANT

DESCRIPTION

MiHC Background:

The Michigan Hispanic Collaborative (MiHC) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that distinctively mentors and supports academically ambitious low-income Hispanic high school and college students in under-resourced Michigan Hispanic communities. We work to eliminate equity barriers that stall academic and employment opportunities, with an overall goal of rapidly reducing the 40% Detroit Latino poverty rate through economic leadership via a bachelor's degree and beyond.

Project Description:

We are seeking a consultant to support MiHC leadership as we build our long-term organizational sustainability strategy. Specifically, this consultant will work with MiHC leaders to develop a sustainability plan. This plan will contain elements of fund development, program expansion, community partnerships, and much more.

The ideal candidate has experience working on organizational sustainability and long-term planning (nonprofit experience is a major plus) and can provide thought leadership as we look towards MiHC's future.

MiHC's standard of excellence mandates that we partner with content experts that are recognized as leaders in their field. We also hope that those we hire are committed to our mission and have values that align with our organization's work.

This is a short-term project (4-6 months) with a minimum commitment of 100 hours per month. Details will be confirmed upon the start of the project.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Master's degree in nonprofit management, business, education, public policy, or related field.
- Demonstrated experience with nonprofit organizational strategy.
- Experience working with schools or in the educational sector.

Project Tasks:

The consultant will:

- Work with MiHC leadership to create a long-term sustainability strategy, considering things such as fund development, programming, partnerships, etc.

Deliverables:

This consultant will provide:

- Organizational long-term sustainability plan, with supporting evidence and research.

Interested candidates must provide a resume outlining relevant experience by February 4, 2022 to amandas@mihc.org. If possible, please provide a writing sample related to the nature of this work.

Individuals employed by the Michigan Economic Development Corporation may not apply.

Consultant will be required to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement.
